Acquisition of Robeco online investment platform

Positioning Evi van Lanschot for further growth

The combined activities

- Online and personal
- Combined €6.3bn in AuM
- Robeco investment funds to remain part of client offering
- Strengthening our mass-affluent team

The future

- Become a leader in mass-affluent market
- Economies of scale
- Platform for further growth
- Improved client offering
- Complementary propositions
- Add savings options

- Impact on CET 1 ratio is -0.5 percentage points
- One-off transition costs in the range of €8m – €11m during a two-year integration period
- Combined activities expected to break even by 2025 – and then start to make a positive contribution to net profit

Private Clients: Continued high net inflows

- Net inflows: 79% non-discretionary, 16% discretionary and 5% investment strategies
- Net inflows well spread across NL, BE, and CH
- Operating result before tax at €97.1m (H1 2022: €55.5m)
- Commission income +5% to €144.4m (H1 2022: €137.0m) and interest income +56% to €106.5m (H1 2022: €68.1m)

Private Clients Belgium

Acquisition of the remaining 30% of Mercier Vanderlinden completed

AuM (€ bn)

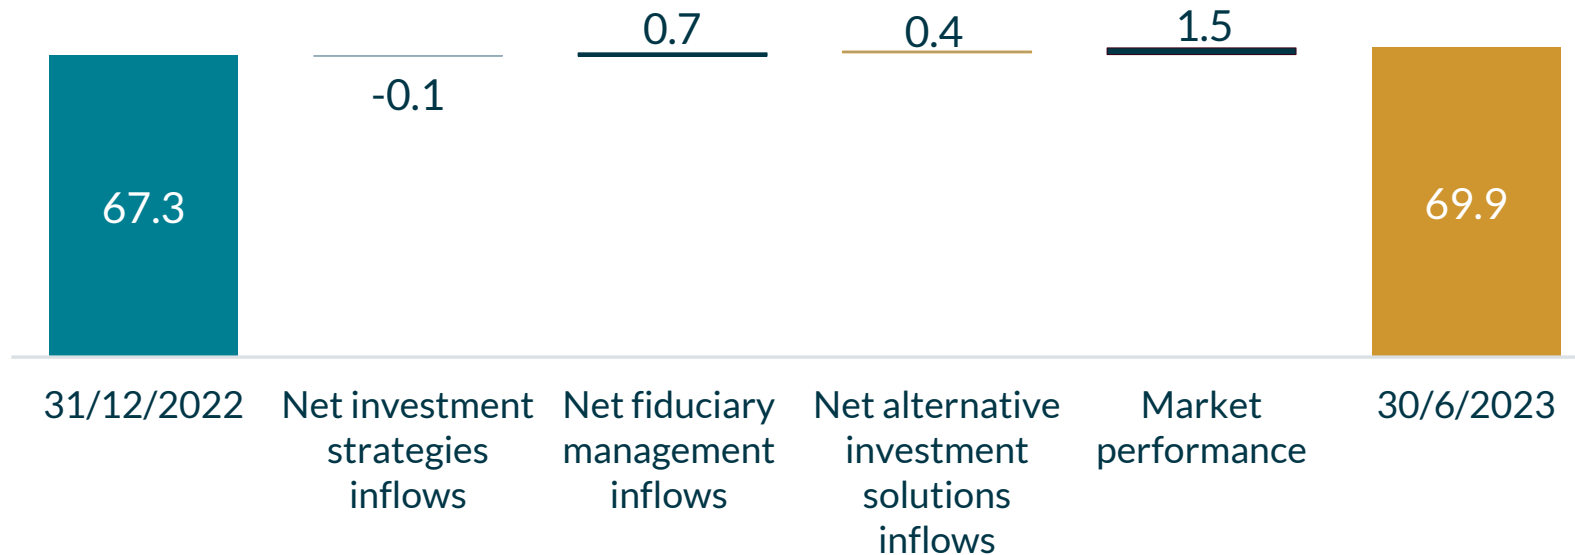

- Integration well on-track: as of 1 January 2024, under the name Mercier Van Lanschot
- Ambition: to become a top-three player in the independent private banking market in Belgium
- Efficiency ratio: 65.4% (H1 2022: 66.7%) – including banking tax and SRF contribution totalling €1.8m

Wholesale & Institutional Clients: €1.0bn net inflow

AuM (€ bn)

- Operating result before tax at -€1.9m (H1 2022: €0.6m) and commission income at €39.3m (H1 2022: €38.3m)
- Investment strategies: outflow from global small caps and inflow into listed real estate and credits
- Measures to improve efficiency and profitable growth, building on initiatives started in 2022:
  - more efficient set-up of organisation and systems
  - investments in commercial strength, e.g. extensive sales training
  - intended reduction of over 20 FTEs in H2 2023

Ability to retain solid margins at both Private Clients and Wholesale & Institutional Clients

Annualised recurring fees* (€ m)

AuM breakdown (~%)

AuM margin at Private Clients: 65 bps (2022: 63 bps); AuM margin at Wholesale & Institutional Clients: 12 bps (2022: 12 bps)

*Annualised recurring securities commission is determined by multiplying the AuM on 30/6/2023 by the management fee per client to determine the expected annualised management fee, assuming AuM remains unchanged. The expected annual transaction fees related to these client portfolios are added.

Investment Banking Clients: challenging markets due to higher interest rates

Commission income (€ m)

- Operating result before tax to -€4.8m (H1 2022: €1.3m)
- As usual, we're adapting our organisation to market conditions with a focus on costs and an appropriate workforce
- We keep our focus on our selected sectors: European real-estate, life sciences & healthcare, tech & fintech, infrastructure & renewables

Interest margins improved in H1 2023

Interest income (€ m)

Interest margin (12-mth moving average, %)

- Net interest income up on the back of ECB interest rate hikes
- Conversion from clients' current accounts to AuM in Q1 and April, and conversion to term deposits in Q2
- Slightly lower interest margin in Q2, due to rising savings rates

* The clean interest margin equals the gross interest margin adjusted for interest equalisation and interest-related derivatives amortisation.

Net interest income: savings rate and client behaviour main drivers

- Notional weighted client rate relative to the ECB rate is approx. 30% per end of June 2023
- Current average term deposit maturity is approx. 0.5 years

Expectations H2 2023

- Further rise of term deposits in the client deposits mix
- Further increase in client savings rates

Client deposits

Other income

- Other income consists of income from securities and associates and result on financial transactions
- Total other income at -€4.2m (H1 2022: €22.0m), decrease driven by:
  - Lower result on co-investments in own products at -€0.5m (H1 2022: €1.7m)
  - Result on medium-term notes at -€10.1m (H1 2022: €0.8m), decrease driven by increased interest expenses on our notes. MTNs are part of our regular funding, and the interest expenses are not recognised as interest income but as result on financial transactions
  - Income from Van Lanschot Participaties (minority interests) in H1 2022 included a book profit of €7.4m

  - Result at €1.3m (H1 2022: -€8.5m) – within income from securities and associates
  - Result on futures at -€1.8m (H1 2022: €10.1m) - within result on financial transactions.
Futures are used to manage the risks of these investments, to stay in line with our risk appetite
- Co-investments in own products includes positions in Global Property Fund, Global Impact Pool and Global Value Fund

Increase operating expenses mainly driven by investments in growth

Operating expenses (€ m)

- Staff costs up, mainly due to
  - a higher number of FTEs at 1,844 (June 2022: 1,713), driven by a shift from contractors to recruitment of internal staff, hiring private bankers and new members of our Digital and Technology teams – reflecting our growth ambitions
  - general increase of fixed salaries of 4.4% as of 1 January 2023 and of 1.0% as of 1 July 2023
- Operating expenses include €10.2m regulatory levies and charges (H1 2022: €11.0m)
- Increase in accommodation expenses driven by inflation on rent and higher energy prices
- To achieve an efficiency ratio of 70% – our target – we maintain a strict focus on costs in all our activities
